

Ivonne Arroyo-Martínez

Human Resource Executive, Speaker

Topics

Organizational Change
Leadership and Management
Productivity
Leading at the Speed of Trust
Creating a Culture of Execution
Personal and Interpersonal Effectiveness
Generations and Diversity in the Workplace

Ivonne Arroyo-Martínez is an international Human Resources executive with expertise in organizational culture and leadership development.

Dr. Arroyo-Martínez has brought her extensive background and academic expertise in organizational development, change management, training, and human resources to organizations in areas around the world including England; Central, South, and North America; and the Caribbean.

Her background includes stints as a HRD manager, an organizational development director in the pharmaceutical sector, a Human Resources Vice President in the health insurance industry, and a Human Resources Regional Director in the consumer sector.

Dr. Arroyo-Martínez harnesses her deep wealth of experience to effectively maximize human resources productivity and well being. This unique approach enhances organizational change and business strategies.

Accomplishments

- M.A., Industrial Organizational Psychology
- Ph.D., Philosophy, General Psychology major
- Human Resources Regional Director
- HRD Manager
- Organizational Development Director
- Human Resources Vice President
- Bilingual English and Spanish

To schedule Ivonne Arroyo-Martínez
Call 1-888-554-1776